TRAVELLERS' MAP OF CANADA.

Dawson Brothers, in view of the great changes going on in the Railway system of Canada, have brought out a new edition of their Pocket Map, revised to January, 1881.

In this all the Railways in operation or projected are shown. The new system of Quebec Railways—the Quebec Central—the South Eastern—the Intercolonial—the Quebec and Occidental—amongst others are given. In Ontario—the Toronto and Ottawa—the Canada Central—the Credit Valley, &c., &c. In New Brunswick—the New Brunswick and Canada. In Nova Scotia—the Annapolis Valley, Yarmouth and Eastern Roads.

On a separate portion is shown the inlets to the North-West. A Sketch Map shows the great lines of travel between the Atlantic and Pacific. All the leading facts are given, and the publishers believe that there is no map extant which affords so much information concerning the Railways and great lines of communication throughout all the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada.

RECENT CANADIAN BOOKS.

The Scot in New France, with an Appendix of Illustrative Notes.
By J. M. LeMoine. 8vo, Paper, pp. 83. 50 cents.

This elaborate essay was read by the President of the Literary and Historical Society of Quebec, as the inaugural address to the winter course of lectures. The ample and favorable reviews it has received from standard publications, such as the Celtic Magazine, of Edinburgh, the Scottish American, of New York, and the Canadian press generally, render superfluous any comments we might add.—Quebec Morning Chronicle.

M. LeMoine montre, preuves historiques en main, qu'il y a un bon nombre d'Ecosseis, ou de descendants écosseis, qui se sont établis au Canada pendant la durée de la domination française venant de familles écosseises qui avaient émigré en France lors des troubles entre l'Angleterre et l'Eccsse — Le Monde.

Picturesque Quebec. By J. M. LeMoine. (In Press).

This book will be an 8vo volume. It will give a complete historical account of the city of Quebec from its foundation, and a topographical description of its streets, buildings and antiquities. It will also contain all the romantic and legendary history which has gathered around the ancient capital of New France. It will be published in July, 1881. Price $2.00.

Mountain and Prairie; a Journey from Victoria to Winnipeg, via Peace River Pass. By the Rev. Daniel M. Gordon. With Maps and Illustrations, Crown 8vo cloth, p. 310. $1.75.

It is extremely pleasant reading, conveying a great deal of information in an attractive shape, and of a thoroughly reliable character.—Canadian Spectator.

We do not know when we have read a similar work with greater interest.—Daily Review.

So full of information that it will be a much-prized and well-read volume by all who wish to study the prospects of the great North-West.—Montreal Herald.

A charming and instructive book.—Presbyterian Witness.

A work that will give the reader a great deal of pleasure.—St. John Globe.

To those who are interested in learning something of the great North-West, it will prove a useful and valuable companion.—New York Scottish American.

Fossil Men and their Modern Representatives; an Attempt to illustrate the Characters and Conditions of Pre-historic Man in Europe by those of the American Races. By J. W. Dawson, LL.D., F. R. S. With many illustrations. Crown 8vo. $2.00.

A most valuable contribution to the Science of Anthropology. Its specialty is the fulness of information which it gives with regard to the early inhabitants of Canada. Information gleaned partly from the account handed down by the early explorer, Cartier, but especially from the close examination of remains. After showing the traces of human life, and of primitive manners and customs, found round the site of the ancient Canadian City, Hochelaga, and in other parts of America, the author proceeds to compare these with the early remains found in the lake-towns of Switzerland, and in the well-known French caves, and it is certainly striking to note the correspondence between them.—British Quarterly Review.

The History of Canada under French Regime. 1535—1763, With Maps, Plans, and Illustrative Notes, by H. H. Miles, LL.D., D.C.L., Secretary of the Quebec Council of Public Instruction. 8vo, Cloth, p.p. 521. $2.50. Second Edition.

Commencing with the discovery of the country, the author narrates the early struggles under Champlain, the rising fortunes of the colony under Frontenac, and the disastrous but heroic close of the early regime under Montcalm and De Levis. The story of the campaign of the winter and spring of 1759-60, which has not generally received due attention, is narrated in full. The author has availed himself of the recently published archives of Nova Scotia, and has given in the Appendix many valuable documents. A copious Index of Reference is added.

The work is illustrated by the following maps and plans :—

1. A general map of New France and New England, showing the sites of the old strongholds of border warfare in Colonial times.
2. A map of the Lake George and Champlain country, showing the routes of invasion.
3. A plan of Montreal in 1759, showing the fortifications and public buildings.
4. A plan of Quebec in 1759.
5. A map of siege operations around Quebec in 1759.
6. A plan of De Levis' Winter Campaign, 1759-60.

A Grammar and Dictionary of the Ojibwe Language. By R. R. Bishop Baraga. New Edition, by a Missionary of the Oblats. 8vo paper, 300 pp. $3.00.

Chansons Populaires du Canada, avec la Musique. Recueilles et publiées avec Annotations, par Ernest Gagnon. Deuxième Edition, papier 8vo, 350 pp. $1.00. Cloth gilt $1.75.

The Treaties of Canada, with the Indians of Manitoba and the North West Territories, including the negotiations on which they were based and other information relating thereto. By Honorable Alex. Morris, late Lieut.-Governor of Manitoba and the North West Territories. Crown 8vo, cloth, pp. 375. $1.50.

Newfoundland as it was and as it is in 1877. By the Rev. Philip Tocque, A.M., Author of "Wandering Thoughts," "A Peep at Uncle Sam's Farm," "The Mighty Deep," &c., &c. Crown 8vo, cloth, pp. 511. $1.50.

This book gives the History of Newfoundland from 1497 to 1877, with a chapter upon the extinct tribe of Red Indians found on the Island when it was discovered. A full account is given of the commercial resources of the island—its Agriculture, Fisheries, Government, Revenue, Trade and Shipping. Each district is described in a separate chapter. The Natural History, Geology, Botany, Zoology, Mineralogy, Meteorology and Climate are fully discussed.

Acadian Geology. The Geological Structure, Organic Remains and Mineral Resources of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, with a Geological Map and numerous Illustrations, and a supplement. Third Edition. Royal 8vo, cloth. $4.00.

"It requires only a glance at the work to perceive that there is here one of the most important of modern contributions to the science of Paleontological Botany."—Geolog. Magazine.

"The economic geology of the region is kept well to the fore, also its physical geography and agricultural characteristics as dependent on its geological structure. Many subjects of great interest in general geology are illustrated or described in this volume, especially the nature of coal, the flora of the coal, preservation of erect trees, origin of gypsum, life in seas, estuaries, &c., trails, rain-marks, and footprints, albertite, gold, primeval man, &c. Upwards of 270 woodcuts, mostly excellent in character, a good geological map, and, lastly, several lists of contents, special subjects and illustrations, a valuable appendix, and useful index complete this satisfactory, well-written and well-printed work, on the geology and geological resources of Acadia."—Annals and Magazine of Natural History.

"The general reader will find many pages of pleasant and lucid description, amplified from the former work, while the political economist will obtain from it a full description of the mineral resources of the Acadian provinces and statistics of their development during the last decade."—New York Evening Post.

"It is altogether a work of which the Colony may very justly be proud, for it is not merely a valuable digest of the geology and paleontology of Acadia, but an important contribution to the literature of these sciences."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Our Birds of Prey; or, the Eagles, Hawks and Owls of Canada. By Henry G. Vennor, F.G.S., of the Geological Survey of Canada, and compiler of Vennor's Almanac, with 30 photographic illustrations by William Notman. $12.00.

A cheap edition, without the plates, paper cover, $2.00.

This beautiful and novel work contains 30 large photographic plates, and upwards of 150 pages of descriptive letter-press, figuring and describing every species of Eagle, Falcon, Hawk, Buzzard and Owl that is known to occur or occasionally to have visited Canada. The photographs, which are by Notman, who has interested himself in this work, and has bestowed upon it his utmost skill, are minutely accurate portraits of the different birds themselves, and are equally as good as preserved and mounted specimens, or even better, as these last take up generally more room than most people can spare. The letter-press of the work is, throughout, based upon the Author's personal observations in the Canadian field between the years 1860 and 1876, and is filled with new and original facts relating to the distribution, habits and nidification of these birds. It also contains the observations of recent American writers on several species concerning which there has been much controversy.

The Intercolonial. A Historical Sketch of the Inception, Location, Construction, and Completion of the Line of Railway uniting the Inland and Atlantic Provinces of the Dominion, with maps and numerous illustrations. By Sandford Fleming, C.E., Engineer-in-Chief of the Newfoundland, Intercolonial and Canadian Pacific Railway. Imperial 8vo. Price $3.00.

This book is not only a Treatise on Railway Engineering, but it contains the only extant full and detailed account of the process, extending over many years, by which a large territory was taken from Canada, and finally handed over by the Ashburton Treaty to the State of Maine. All necessary illustrative matter in the shape of maps and extracts from treaties is given, so that the work is really a valuable contribution to Canadian History, showing how the distortion of the Canadian frontier was effected, and how the present unintelligible frontier was evolved.

THE CIVIL LAW OF THE PROVINCE OF QUEBEC.

The Province of Quebec alone, among the British Provinces of America, possesses, through the French, the precious inheritance of the Roman Civil Law. This system of Law has been condensed into a Code, which, for clearness and compactness, is not equalled by the Code of any other country in the world.

The Civil Code or System of Law, and the Code of Procedure are contained in the two undermentioned volumes. They are beautifully printed on paper specially made, and in very clear type. The volumes are so small that they can both be carried easily in the pocket.

McCORD (T.)—The Civil Code of Lower Canada; together with a Synopsis of the Changes in the Law, References to the Reports of Commissioners, the Authorities as reported by the Commissioners, a Concordance with the Code Napoleon and the Code de Commerce, Special References for Notaries, Clergymen, Physicians, Merchants, Real Estate Owners, and persons out of Lower Canada, and a complete Analytical Index. Third Edition. With Notes, showing the Statutory alterations since the promulgation of the Code, up to January, 1880. By Thos. McCord, formerly Secretary to the Codification Commission, and now one of the Justices of the Superior Court of the Province of Quebec. Price, $3.

"Not only an interesting study to the intelligent citizen, but a positive aid and guide to persons in many circumstances and transactions of life."—Quebec Chronicle.

"A small, neat and convenient volume with a brief and succinct preface relating to the Code. As a useful pocket manual of intelligible law, this volume has, and unfortunately can have as yet, no rival in England and not many in the English Colonies."—London Saturday Review.

"The new edition has the additional value of carefully prepared notes, in which Judge McCord succinctly indicates such provisions of law, or judicial decisions, as bear upon any of the articles of the Code, and explains at the same time in what manner the article is affected. The typography and binding are unsurpassed specimens of Canadian workmanship. We can heartily recommend any person to purchase a copy of this useful little book."—Quebec Chronicle.

A Manual of the Practice and Procedure in the Several Courts having Civil Jurisdiction in the Province of Quebec. Containing the Code of Civil Procedure of Lower Canada, with the Amendments thereto made since its promulgation, the Authorities as Reported by the Commissioners and References to Subsequent Decisions. Also, the Rules of Practice of the Said Several Courts and Tables of the Tariffs of Fees, &c., payable on all proceedings, with various other useful matter and a General Index. By Ivan Wotherspoon, M.A., LL.B., Advocate. Price $3.00.

Canada on the Pacific, being an account of a Journey from Edmonton to the Pacific by the Peace River Valley, and of a Winter Voyage along the Western Coast of the Dominion. By Charles Horetzky, Montreal. $1.00.

This book was published in 1874, but it contains a great deal of information bearing on the Pacific Railway routes, the result of the personal observation of the writer.

The Loyalists of America and their Times. From 1620 to 1816. By Egerton Ryerson, D.D., LL.D., Chief Superintendent of Education for Upper Canada from 1844 to 1876. In two volumes. Second Edition. Imperial 8vo, pp. 517 and 489. $5.00.

Only one side of the History of American Independence has as yet been written. In this valuable work are the materials for the other.

Ville-Marie, or, Sketches of Montreal, Past and Present. By Alfred Sandham, author of "Coins, Tokens and Medals of Canada." Life member of the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society of Montreal, and corresponding member of the American Numismatic and Archaeological Society of New York. With numerous engravings of Churches and Public Buildings, Street Views, Antiquities, Maps, Costumes, &c., &c. $2.00.

This is not a recent work. It is the only one of its kind now in print. The remainder of the edition is very small.

Dawson's Tourist's Map of the Dominion of Canada; Showing all the Railways constructed or proposed. In pocket form 75 cts. Mounted on cloth for pocket, $1.25.

This is the most complete and portable map in the market, and it has been brought up to the year 1881. All the new lines of Railway are shown. It is clearly printed and nicely colored.

Dawson's Map of Manitoba, Keewatin, British Columbia, and the North West Territory.

This is a map on a large scale for Travellers and Settlers. It has been brought up to 1881, and contains all the information collected on one clear map which is scattered over many government publications. It is an engraved map and is clear and accurate.

The Emigrant and Sportsman in Canada. Some Experiences of an Old Country Settler, with Sketches of Canadian Life, Sporting Adventures, and Observations on the Forest and Farms. By John J. Rowan. With a map showing the distribution of game and fur-bearing animals, fishes for food and sport, and the distribution of forest trees. Price $2.50.

Portions of this work appeared in The Field, a leading London newspaper. Much new matter has been added. The book contains practical and useful hints for Emigrants and Sportsmen; and as they are written by an Emigrant and Sportsman, they have special value for a class of Immigrants who are not considered in the Government Emigration Literature, namely, people of small fortune, whose means, though ample for Canada, are insufficient to meet the demands of rising expenses in England.

OTHER CANADIAN PUBLICATIONS.

The Canadian Naturalist.

This Journal is issued under the auspices of the Natural History Society of Montreal, and contains the Reports of the Proceedings of the Society. It is, perhaps, the oldest Magazine in the Dominion, having been issued for more than twenty years. During that period, almost all the writers known to the Canadian scientific world have contributed more or less frequently to its pages. It thus contains, as an inspection of the following detailed list of original articles will show, a mass of information relative to the country, its Flora-Fauna, Geology, &c., of the greatest value, and which can be procured in no other shape. Every student of Natural History should possess it, and no Canadian Mechanics' Institute, or other Public Library, should be without a set.

It is to be had at the following rates :—

First Series. Eight volumes. Bound in Cloth. Price per set, $16.00.

No odd volumes or odd numbers of this series can be supplied.

Second Series. Nine volumes have appeared. These are bound in cloth, uniform with the first series. Price per vol. $3.50.

Volumes 1 and 2 of this series will be sold separately. No odd numbers can be supplied except of Vol. 7. Vol. 4 is quite of print.

The subscription is $3.00 per volume, which covers a period of two years. Subscriptions are only taken by the volume. Volume 10 has just commenced.

MANITOBA AND THE NORTH-WEST.

NEW MAP

— OF —

MANITOBA AND THE NORTH-WEST TERRITORY.

Price, Mounted on Cloth, and Folded for Travelling, $3.00
In Sheets, - - - - - 1.25

This Map supplies a need which travellers and intending settlers have felt, for something which will be portable and yet at the same time give an extended view of the enormous area now opened up for settlement.

It extends from the Sault Ste. Marie to the Pacific Ocean, and from the Missouri River to Lake Arthabaska. It shows the river system of the Peace, Saskatchewan, and Assiniboine Rivers in full, and the outlets of the North-West through Lake Winnipeg and the Hays and Nelson Rivers. The shores of Hudson's Bay, from Fort York to Moose Factory, are given, and their connection, by means of the Moose, Albany and other rivers, with the older Provinces of Canada. British Columbia is also given in its whole extent.

This Map is an engraved Map, and has the merit of clearness which engraved Maps must possess over photo-lithographed ones. It is based on the maps of Arrowsmith, and is corrected by the latest results of recent surveys. The scale is large enough to show the localities clearly, and bring out the whole geographical relations between the new and old Provinces of Canada. It should be in the hands of all interested in the vast regions now being opened up.
